The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.
Psalm 103:8

Alert!! Alert!

September 13th– 16th we will be participating in what's being called the "Celebration of Hope" evangelistic crusade at the Harvester Stadium. I had the privilege of traveling with Rick Gage, the evangelist for the crusade, throughout the Southeast as well as the Texas Panhandle. I have personally witnessed thousands of people surrender their lives to Jesus through these crusades.

DON'T MISS THIS LIFE CHANGING EVENT!

Plan to be there every night, and bring someone with you.

The music will be dynamic, and the Gospel will be powerfully preached. Don't miss it!

ARE YOU PRAYING

Hello again, church family!

There are, according to Google, roughly 18,400 people living in Pampa. According to estimates from the pastors around town, roughly 5,000 of those people are churched, leaving a vast majority (13,400, for those keeping score at home) of the people in Pampa in desperate need of the Gospel.

In the coming weeks, we have two opportunities to share the Good News of Christ with those all around us. On September 7th, we will take part in going to Chautauqua and handing out bottled water to thirsty people- taking a page directly from Jesus' playbook as we minister to physical needs in order to create opportunities to have conversations about their spiritual needs. We are still in need of many more volunteers to take part in this effort, both in the morning and the afternoon, and if you'd like to take part, sign up in the front of the sanctuary.

The next week, we will have the opportunity to take part in a Gospel crusade with other believers from churches all around Pampa in order to share Christ with every lost person in this town. Many of you are already serving on the Prayer Team, Counseling Team, Outreach Team, Finance Team, and many other groups that are helping make the crusade a reality, and I hope that the rest of us will find ways to plug in before the crusade begins on September 13th.

However else you decide to be an evangelist this month, remember to lift up the lost of this city in prayer. Pray for the crusade, for Rick Gage as he shares the gospel, for the counselors who will talk with those who come forward, and for the follow-up that needs to happen in the following days. Pray for those we talk to at Chautauqua, that the Lord will use those conversations to spark within people recognition of their need for Him. Remember, evangelism isn't just for those called to be missionaries or pastors, it is for EVERY believer.

"Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age." -Matthew 28:19-20 (NLT)

Soli Deo Gloria,

Kyle
