Youth Ministry

Hello again, church family!

Before I started to write this, I just finished reading through all the results from Operation 1 Mile this weekend. It is so encouraging to me to see the turnout from the body here at Cornerstone to reach out to the communities around us- to gain an outward focus in the midst of a culture which tells us constantly to focus on what is best for us, instead of those around us. I am excited to say that 40 houses were visited Sunday, and that we had the opportunity to pray with and for a number of the families from those homes. I look forward to seeing what God will do through our faithfulness to His call to be His witnesses, “first in Jerusalem, then in Judea, then Samaria, then to the ends of the earth.” (Acts 1:8)

A few months ago, I came upon a quote that has been a great encouragement to me. Phil Vischer once said that a believer's job in life and in ministry is to “focus on obedience, not outcomes,” and he's absolutely right. Scripture is rife with the idea that the Lord is the one who brings the harvest; that God alone is responsible for salvation and for drawing the lost to Himself- yet He gives us the privilege of being a part of the process, and we are responsible for our willingness to obey. I want to encourage each person who visited a house where no one was home- God will work in your obedience, even if you don't see an immediate outcome. To all those who served on the prayer team or stuffed gift bags- God will use your obedience, even though we can't see the immediate result.

Romans 8:28 promises that “God works all things together for good for those who love Him and are called according to His purpose.” We are called to the purpose of reaching these communities for Christ. We love Him. We therefore know that He will work good out of our obedience as we reach out, even in the times when we can't yet see what good He is working.

There are thousands of hurting people in Pampa: people who don't have a hope, who are going through life with a hole in their spirit only Jesus can fill, with a need only Jesus can meet. As we pray for them to come to know the Lord, let's focus on our part of the process- on obedience, not outcomes.

Love y'all! Soli Deo Gloria,

Kyle
