GOD’S WORD—INSPIRED

The Bible is an amazing book. It is amazing in its unity, its purpose, and its central theme. From Genesis to Revelation, there is an evident unity of thought, a clearly defined purpose, and one central theme. Its unity of thought is the exaltation of the Lord Jesus Christ. Its clearly defined purpose is the demonstration of God’s love for mankind. Its one central theme is the unfolding of the plan of redemption. God is the author of the Bible; however God used men as the instrument for writing the Scriptures. The Bible was written by about 40 men over a period of about 1,500 years. No other book was written by so many different men over such a wide span of years. These men came from many different walks of life—some had high positions and some did not; some had formal education and some did not. Yet in spite of these factors, their writings indicate that their source of inspiration was the same, the Holy Spirit.

The men whom God directed to write the Scriptures included fishermen; scholars; poets; kings and prophets.

Worship. Grow. Serve.

The Bible is the authoritative point of reference for all matters pertaining to life and ministry
