A bit about us.....

It is a Friends tradition to believe in the continuing personal revelation of God to all His people. In our worship service you will find a time some call "open worship" or "quiet waiting". This time for reflection and "centering" on God, may include people sharing what God has done or is doing in their lives.

²⁸ One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" ²⁹ "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ' Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. ' The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." ³² "Well said, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. ' To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices. " ³⁴ When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions. Mark 12:28-34 NIV

More from Friends in our area

Hemlock Friends recently had church outings which included a "Fish Out" and pitch-in meal on August 8 and the "Church in the Barn" on September 9. Also the congregation is holding monthly cottage prayer meetings.

Knightstown Friends suffered a fire in their parsonage on September 20—a building used as the church office. The building suffered extensive damage, but the meeting house was spared. Pastor Tim Basford lives in his own home but lost everything in his office. We are thankful there were no injuries. Probable cause was an electric malfunction with the air conditioning unit.

IYM Superintendent, Doug Shoemaker continues to appreciate Hemlock serving as prayer partners in his ministry. Please also pray for the locations/events he will be at.
