A bit about us.....

It is a Friends tradition to believe in the continuing personal revelation of God to all His people. In our worship service you will find a time some call "open worship" or "quiet waiting". This time for reflection and "centering" on God, may include people sharing what God has done or is doing in their lives.

IYM Sessions Preview: Yearly Meeting sessions are scheduled for July 26-28 at Quaker Haven Camp. Corporate worship is a central part of our annual gatherings. This year our guest speaker won't be a guest at all. Our General Superintendent, Doug Shoemaker, will be speaking on Thursday and Friday evenings as well as at the Saturday afternoon Recording Service. Our worship leaders will be Mike Haemmerle and Kerry Davis who make up the group, "A Better Day."

Solar Powered Radios: A dozen solar powered radio receivers that will enable remote tribes and refugees in Turkana to hear the gospel radio through broadcasts have been delivered! Donations for eight of them have already been received. We are still raising money to pay for the remaining four. If you'd like to provide one or more of these radios, you can do so for just $40 apiece. Please send your contribution to the IYM office and mark it for "Turkana radios."

IYM Superintendent, Doug Shoemaker continues to appreciate Hemlock serving as prayer partners in his ministry.
