Our desire is to know Christ more each day and to make Him known to others. We pray each one who attends today will receive practical insight from the Lord into daily living whether through music, fellowship, personal reflection or preaching.

A bit about us.....

It is a Friends tradition to believe in the continuing personal revelation of God to all His people. In our worship service you will find a time some call "open worship" or "quiet waiting". This time for reflection and "centering" on God, may include people sharing what God has done or is doing in their lives.

¹Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. ²A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. ³He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd. ⁴So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way. ⁵When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." ⁶So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly. ⁷All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a sinner." ⁸But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount." Luke 19:1-8

More from Friends in our area!

Friends from across Indiana will be gathering in small groups over the next few weeks to discuss the good work of Friends United Meeting and how meetings, churches, families, and individuals can better partner with each other to support FUM's shared work. A portion of each gathering will focus on Energize, Equip, and Connect: The FUM Campaign. The three-year, three-million dollar campaign is intended to strengthen FUM's sustainability and enable FUM to launch several new initiatives.

John Muhanji of FUM's African Ministries Office in Kenya will be in Indiana from May 16 through June 1 and would be available to speak to churches and interested groups of Friends during that time.

IYM Superintendent, Doug Shoemaker continues to appreciate Hemlock serving as prayer partners in his ministry. Please also pray for the locations/events he will be at.
