A bit about us.....

It is a Friends tradition to believe in the continuing personal revelation of God to all His people. In our worship service you will find a time some call "open worship" or "quiet waiting". This time for reflection and "centering" on God, may include people sharing what God has done or is doing in their lives.

⁵ When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" John 6:5 NIV

More from Friends in our area

IYM Preview: Registration for yearly meeting sessions will be open beginning May 14. Brochures and registration forms are being sent to past attenders and current member churches of IYM this week. These forms will also be available at www.iym.org in the next few days. Lodging fills up quickly, so we encourage you to register early. We have also reserved a block of rooms at Brook Pointe Inn for additional lodging options. You may contact Brook Pointe directly at 574-457-4466.

Hemlock Friends was the recipient of an Easter Morning breakfast served by their pastors, Rob and Brenda Schwarzee. It was a beautiful example of servanthood. Recently, a volunteer group from Hemlock gathered at Cross America in Kokomo to fold crosses that are being sent to every household in the country. It is a beautiful facility where your church may like to help. Check out their website for this worthy cause at info@crossamerica.net. They are also on Facebook.

Manantial de Vida invites you to a dinner of tacos, rice, refried beans, and other Hispanic delights to be held May 19, 5-7 pm at Maple Run Friends. A free-will offering will be taken.

Edwin and Ruby Katherine Barker were humble servants that blessed several Friends meetings in IYM through pastoral ministry and ministry at Quaker Haven. In their estate, they left a generous donation to Quaker Haven that will bless the ministry for years to come.

Turkana Flooding; Friends may have seen news reports about devastating flooding in Kenya. Turkana is one of the places where there has been a lot of destruction, and John Moru reported that many Friends in Lokoyo Meeting have lost their homes.

IYM Superintendent, Doug Shoemaker continues to appreciate Hemlock serving as prayer partners in his ministry.
