A bit about us.....

It is a Friends tradition to believe in the continuing personal revelation of God to all His people. In our worship service you will find a time some call "open worship" or "quiet waiting". This time for reflection and "centering" on God, may include people sharing what God has done or is doing in their lives.

In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. John 16:23 NIV

2017 Yearly Meeting Preview:

Yearly Meeting Registration is now open. Brochures are in the mail and available online at www.iym.org. Lodging options at Quaker Haven Camp fill-up quickly so please submit your registration as soon as possible to reserve your spot. Again this year, the Brook Pointe Inn in Syracuse, will offer a discount to yearly meeting attendees staying there. Mention the “Friends and Family” discount when making reservations directly with them.

Bear Creek Friends has extended a call to Zach Kennedy (Courtney) to serve as their new pastor beginning July 1. They will host an open house to honor their current pastor and his wife, Vernon and Joan Huffman, who are observing their sixtieth wedding anniversary and retiring after forty-one years in Friends pastoral ministry, with an open house at the church on Saturday, June 3, from 2 to 5 pm. Vernon pastored at Rural for seven years, Bloomingport for fifteen years, and Bear Creek for the past nineteen years. Everyone is invited to attend.

Friends Theological College (FTC) reached its landmark seventy-fifth anniversary last month. The college is planning for a special gathering later on.

IYM Superintendent, Doug Shoemaker continues to appreciate Hemlock serving as prayer partners in his ministry. Please also pray for the locations/events he will be at.
