Family Is Important

Family is where you find refuge and understanding from the outside world. Family often centers around one main multi-talented person. MOM! She is the one who is up early caring for everyone else and usually the last one to rest at night. So often we take family for granted.

There's another family too. It's the church family which is part of God's bigger family. People who know and care about each other. You can't choose who your natural family is, but you can choose what church family you'll be part of. So have you chosen one?
