A bit about us.....

It is a Friends tradition to believe in the continuing personal revelation of God to all His people. In our worship service you will find a time some call "open worship" or "quiet waiting". This time for reflection and "centering" on God, may include people sharing what God has done or is doing in their lives.

¹ The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing.² He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters,³ he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake.⁴ Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.⁵ You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.⁶ Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Psalm 23 NIV

Sycamore Friends invites you to a special night, October 28, 6 pm, with Doug Shoemaker and Pat Byers, along with the vocalists and musicians from several other monthly meetings for a night of worship and encouragement. They are seeking to “fan the flames of revival” that we have been experiencing at the IYM Sessions. Pat Byers and the IYM band will lead in a time of music and worship. Doug Shoemaker will bring a message of encouragement and hope. In addition, Brock Sizelove, from Quaker Haven Camp, will give an update on the work at QHC.

Friends Disaster Service is Calling for Volunteers! There will be a workweek at Quaker Haven, November 4-10, working on the new duplex for staff housing.
