

FARMERSSM
INSURANCE

Farmers Insurance-District 48 (Inland Empire)

Farmers Insurance Wants You!

Looking for a career with a future. Farmers Insurance has opportunities for you to grow your skills, business knowledge, and realize your full potential. Depending on your desire and aspirations, Farmers has both career and agency ownership opportunities throughout the entire State of California, including the Inland Empire, Los Angeles & Orange County markets. High performing individuals with a base and commissions enjoy an average a salary of $40,000, with unlimited future income, career growth, and business ownership potential.

Being a proud Farmers agent, you will be a true business professional offering individuals, small businesses and commercial clients with complete insurance and financial solutions. In joining our team, you will be part of a 90-year organization with a national brand presence that prides itself with honesty and integrity. No insurance experience is necessary, but sales experience is strongly recommended.

Find out if Farmers Insurance may be the right fit for you, your family and your future. If interested, please send your resume to jose.dcovarrubias@farmersagency.com.